Philippine Armorial

A selection of arms from the records of the Philippine Armorial

The Philippine Armorial thanks all those who contribute to the development of heraldry in the Philippines, whether as artists, scholars, designers, armigers, enthusiasts or admirers of this art and science.

We extend special acknowledgment to the Filipino Heraldry Society and the Heraldry Guild of the Philippines for their work in particular at encouraging and supporting the growth and use of heraldry amongst those of Philippine heritage worldwide.

Arms selected for here publication include only those with illustrator information available. Copyrighted coats of arms are shared here as fair use for teaching purposes and comment. Family names reflect common convention unless otherwise submitted for record by the Armiger.

Baybayin set in Bayani font by Lloyd Zapanta
Compilation copyright Philippine Armorial
December 2022

The Philippine Armorial is the public register and reference of personal and family coats of arms of all persons of Philippine heritage. Everyone with a connection to the Philippines – Philippine citizens or residents as well as everyone of Philippine heritage – is welcome to register their arms with the Philippine Armorial. We record personal and family arms, badges and other heraldic devices, blazon, biographical and background information for permanent public reference. Please visit the Armorial at philippinearmorial.org.
